

Name _____

“YOU ARE THERE” LETTER

Your Task: Write a personal letter to someone in this history unit, giving them advice on how to deal with a historical situation. Your letter should include 3 vocabulary terms, underlined.

Instructions:

1. Address your letter properly. “Dear Julius Caesar,”
2. Explain the historical situation in detail. (1 paragraph)
3. Give advice on how the person can deal with the problem. (1 paragraph)
4. Explain what you hope might happen for this person, or with the event in general (1 paragraph).
5. You are writing this as if you were giving a friend advice, try to be helpful!
6. Close the letter properly. “Sincerely, your friend”

“YOU ARE THERE” LETTER RUBRIC

Letter is written in proper letter format	___/5
Historical situation is explained in detail	___/20
Advice is realistic, original, and expressed creatively	___/10
Concluding paragraph uses detail to describe your hopes for this person/event.	___/10
Vocabulary terms are included and underlined	___/10
Spelling/neatness/organization of paper	___/10
Total	___/65